

Santa Fe County Joined the 100% NM Initiative

On May 8, the first 100% NM summit for Santa Fe County was held. This event was attended by more than 80 people, including members of various organizations, government entities, and members of the community in general. During the summit, participants were divided into different groups to discuss 10 vital areas of interest.

The atmosphere was full of enthusiasm and commitment on the part of all attendees. The working groups presented various proposals and action plans that will be evaluated and prioritized in the following stages of the project. Participants expressed their excitement to continue collaborating and carry out the initiatives discussed to improve the quality of life in Santa Fe County.

The 100% NM Summit marked an important shift in collaboration between diverse sectors of society and demonstrated a collective commitment to addressing the county's challenges and opportunities.

It is an honor and joy to present to you the 100% NM Santa Fe County Summit Report! The summit was an extraordinary event for our community, a dynamic platform where we have shared, learned, and discussed the vital services essential for the well-being of us all.

A heartfelt thank you goes out to our incredible community partners. Your unwavering support and collaboration have been fundamental to the success of this summit. With your dedication and effort, we created such an enriching and constructive space.

To the entire community that joined us, we are immensely grateful. Your active participation and valuable contributions have been the heartbeat of this event. Together, we have explored and discussed solutions that bring us closer to a more prosperous and sustainable future for all.

For those who could not attend, we truly missed your presence and warmly invite you to join us in future meetings. Your insights and engagement are vital as we move forward.

I am thrilled to announce that our working groups will start soon and meet monthly. These groups will continue the important work initiated at the summit, focusing on actionable steps to ensure the well-being and success of our community. We encourage everyone to get involved and be part of this exciting journey!

Thank you for your commitment and for being part of this transformative journey! Let's move forward with the same enthusiasm and spirit of collaboration, building together a path toward 100% Santa Fe.
